To all who are spiritually weary and seek rest;
to all who mourn and long for comfort;
to all who struggle and desire victory;
to all who sin and need a Savior;
to all who are strangers and want fellowship;
to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness;
and to whoever will come—

this church opens wide her doors and offers her welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Call to Worship
* Doxology (Trinity Hymnal 731)
Praise God from Whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav’nly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

* Confession (from The Book of Common Prayer)
Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness which we have from time to time committed by thought, word and deed against Your divine majesty, provoking most justly Your wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent and are heartily sorry for our misdoings; they are grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father for Your Son our Lord Jesus Christ’s sake; forgive us all that is past, and grant that hereafter we may serve and please You in newness of life, to the honor and glory of Your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

* The Gospel’s Assurance of Pardon

* Invocation

* Hymn 714: We Plow the Fields
Wir Pflügen
Responsive Reading
Psalm 29:1-11 (page 461)

* Gloria Patri (Trinity Hymnal 734)
Gloria Patri (Meineke)
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

* Apostles’ Creed
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE SHORTER CATECHISM, circa 1647
One of the documents that explains what our church and denomination believe is known as the Shorter Catechism. We are including in the bulletin a series of questions and answers dealing with some of the essential doctrines of our faith.

Question 18: Wherein consists the sinfulness of that estate whereinto man fell?

Answer: The sinfulness of that estate whereinto man fell consists in the guilt of Adam’s first sin, the want of original righteousness, and the corruption of his whole nature, which is commonly called original sin; together with all actual transgressions which proceed from it.

City School Acquires Poplar Campus
By Jake Becker, Head of School at The City School

Fall of 2018 will be an exciting time for students in Philadelphia. After many years of prayers and anticipation for a new home for its students, The City School recently acquired a former charter school site at 910 N. 6th Street in the Poplar/Northern Liberties section of Philadelphia. For forty years The City School has been focused on training students’ minds, discipling their hearts, and bringing light to the city—one child at a time.

Having boldly pursued growth and innovation to see children flourishing in the city, this new Poplar upper school campus will build upon the success of The City School’s current campuses at Fairmount (elementary), Spruce Hill (elementary), Walnut Street (middle school), and Rittenhouse (high school). Founded in part by former Tenth pastor Dr. James Boice and his wife Linda, The City School has a rich 35-year partnership with Tenth Church. This new campus hopefully will present an even greater opportunity to strengthen these ties. The new Poplar campus will allow the Walnut Street and Rittenhouse campuses, currently at the University City Chinese Christian Church and Tenth Presbyterian Church respectively, to consolidate on one centrally-located upper school campus.

The new Poplar campus will present the opportunity to double upper school enrollment to over 320 students within five years. This enrollment growth will set the stage for a plethora of opportunities, including a competition-size gymnasium, a retractable stage, outdoor recreation space, and double the classroom capacity of the school’s current Walnut Street and Rittenhouse facilities. It will have the space to allow separate rooms for middle school and high school programming as well as combined spaces like a cafeteria, labs, and art spaces in order to foster community between the students. The school community has already started using the campus this current school year. Already it has hosted basketball games and practices, professional development for our teachers, volunteer service for our students, and other school community events. Being able to walk into a space that, while continuing to require modest upcoming renovations, was in good enough shape to start using right away was a huge blessing. With the move to Poplar, The City School will be able to serve in a new neighborhood with proximity to the Market-Frankford and Broad Street subway lines as well as multiple bus and trolley routes to support access to this thriving school community from across the Philadelphia region.

Who you learn with matters. Consider joining this dynamic, growing school community as a new student or as a committed financial or community partner. Already with a clear focus on nurturing the whole child with stellar academic success, the next steps at The City School are truly inspiring. Imagine investing in a school community committed to honoring Jesus in the city through excellent and accessible education—a place where children flourish.

How can you be involved? What else can God do through our united ministry ties?

The Project of the Month offering as of November 19 is $392.
Tenth carries out its gospel-centered mission of proclaiming God’s truth to those of us near and far away through servants who are “worthy of their hire” in their faithful work. Tenth’s funds support those servants and cover other expenses (for our church ministries as well as maintenance, utilities, etc.) that keep the gospel work going, while we seek to create space for future gospel work through the Capital Campaign.

Our combined Church Ministry Fund and Outreach Fund budgets call for 2017 combined giving of $3,047,430. To date, our giving is significantly below amounts needed for this time of year. Seasonally-adjusted projections suggest a significant year-end gap in those two funds; without seasonal adjustments, projections are far more concerning. Please join Tenth’s Elders and Trustees as we re-commit ourselves to prayer and consider sacrificial giving toward our ongoing ministry for the gospel in Philadelphia and around the world.

ABOUT TENTH

We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America adhering to the authority of Scripture and confessing the doctrine contained in the Westminster Standards. Tenth was founded in 1829, its present structure was designed by John McArthur Jr., and built in 1855–1857. The interior was redesigned by Frank Miles Day in 1893. More information about history and architecture is at tenth.org/history.
