Prelude

Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

Johann Sebastian Bach

Though I May Speak with Bravest Fire

arr. Dale Wood

Though I may speak with bravest fire, and have the gift of all inspire, and have not love, my words are vain, as sounding brass, and hopeless gain.

Though I may give all I possess, and striving so my love profess, but not be given by love within, the profit soon turns strangely thin.

Come, Spirit, come, our hearts control, our spirits long to be made whole.
Let inward love guide every deed; by this we worship, and are freed.

Colin Howland, organ

Call to Worship

* Doxology (Trinity Hymnal 731)

Old Hundredth

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

* Confession

Almighty God, to know You is the fulfillment of our deepest longings and satisfaction of our most ardent desires. Yet we have sought our pleasures elsewhere; and have put the seeking of idols above seeking You. We have failed to love You with all our heart, soul and mind; and we have failed to love our neighbors as ourselves. Forgive us for our sin and grant that from now on we might serve You in newness of life.

Glorify be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

* Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE SHORTER CATECHISM, circa 1647

One of the documents that explains what our church and denomination believe is known as the Shorter Catechism. We are including in the bulletin a series of questions and answers dealing with some of the essential doctrines of our faith.

Question 37: What benefits do believers receive from Christ at death?

Answer: The souls of believers are at their death made perfect in holiness, and do immediately pass into glory; and their bodies, being still united to Christ, do rest in their graves till the resurrection.

Prelude

Antiphon from Five Mystical Songs

Ralph Vaughan Williams

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King.
The heavens are not too high, His praise may thither fly:
The earth is not too low, His praises there may grow.
The church with psalms must shout, no door can keep them out:
But above all, the heart must bear the longest part.

Komm Süßes Kreuz from St. Matthew Passion

Johann Sebastian Bach

Come, sweet Cross, this I want to say: my Jesus, give it always to me!
If my suffering becomes too heavy one day, you yourself will help me bear it.

The Dawning

Peter Anglea

Awake, sad heart, whom sorrow ever drowns; take up thine eyes, which feed on earth;
Unfold thy forehead, gathered into frowns; thy Savior comes, and with Him mirth:
Awake, awake, and with a thankful heart His comforts take. But thou dost still lament, and pine, and cry,
And feel His death, but not His victory. Arise, sad heart, if thou dost not withstand,
Christ's resurrection thine may be; do not by hanging down break from the hand which,
As it riseth, raiseth thee. Arise, arise, and with His burial linen dry thine eyes.
Christ left His grave clothes, that we might when grief draws tears or blood, not want a handkerchief.
Awake, arise, awake, arise.

but that the world through Him might be saved. God so loved the world.

Question of Preparation (from the Heidelberg Catechism; congregation reads answer in unison)

Question #78: Are the bread and wine changed into the real body and blood of Christ?

Answer: No. Just as the water of baptism is not changed into Christ's blood and does not itself wash away sins but is simply God's sign and assurance, so too the bread of the Lord's Supper is not changed into the actual body of Christ even though it is called the body of Christ in keeping with the nature and language of sacraments.
