Prelude

How Excellent Is Thy Loving Kindness

F.H. Cowen

How excellent is Thy loving kindness, O God! Thou visitest the earth, and makest it soft with showers. Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness, and Thy paths drop fatness. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness, and the little hills are girded with joy. The valleys also are covered over with corn, they shout for joy and sing. God hath given me of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine. How excellent is Thy loving kindness, O God!

Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

* Confession

O God our Father, forgive us for thinking less of You than we ought; for we think Your truth too high, Your will too hard, and Your power too remote; but they are not! We humbly ask that You resolve our confused minds with Your word, redirect our divided wills with Your law, restore our troubled consciences with Your forgiveness, and revive our anxious hearts with Your presence, for the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, Who loved us and gave Himself for us. Amen.

Out of the depths I cry to Thee, Lord, my sins bewailing! Bow down Thy gracious ear to me, make Thou my prayer availing. Mark not my misdeeds in Thy book, gracious Lord, most holy; on my sins in mercy look; who can stand before Thee? Hear my prayer, hear my supplication. Thou my hope, Thou my light, Thou my soul's deliverance. With Thee there is forgiveness, Lord, love and grace abounding. The greatest thought or deed or word were else but empty sounding. All who in Thy sight appear come in sinful measure; all before Thee bow in fear, seeking Thy good pleasure. Hear my prayer, hear my cry, hear my supplication. Thou my hope, Thou my light, Thou my soul's deliverance. Amen.

THE SHORTER CATECHISM, circa 1647

One of the documents that explains what our church and denomination believe is known as the Shorter Catechism. We are including in the bulletin a series of questions and answers dealing with some of the essential doctrines of our faith.

Question 46: What is required in the first commandment?

Answer: The first commandment requireth us to know and acknowledge God to be the only true God, and our God; and to worship and glorify him accordingly.

EVENING WORSHIP

6:15 PM Soli Deo Gloria

Prelude

Selections from Elijah

Felix Mendelssohn

Lord God of Abraham

Draw near, all ye people, come to me! Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; this day let it be known that Thou art God, and I am thy servant! Lord God of Abraham! O show to all this people that I have done these things according to Thy word! O hear me, Lord, and answer me; and show this people that Thou art Lord God; and let their hearts again be turned.

Is Not His Word Like a Fire

Is not His word like a fire? And like a hammer that breaketh the rock, that breaketh the rock in pieces? His word is like a fire, and like a hammer that breaketh the rock. For God is angry with the wicked every day; and if the wicked turn not, the Lord will whet His sword; and He hath bent His bow, and made it ready!

It Is Enough

It is enough, O Lord, now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers! I desire to live no longer; now let me die, for my days are by vanity! I have been very jealous for the Lord, for the Lord God of hosts, for the children of Israel have broken Thy covenant and thrown down Thy altars, and slain all Thy prophets, slain them with the sword. And I, even I only am left; and they seek my life to take it away. It is enough!

For the Mountains Shall Depart

I go on my way in the strength of the Lord. For Thou art my Lord, and I will suffer for thy sake. My heart is therefore glad; my glory rejoiceth; and my flesh shall also rest in hope.

For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but Thy kindness shall not depart from me; neither shall the covenant of Thy peace be removed.

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven; to His feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, evermore His praises sing: Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favor to His people in distress. Praise Him, still the same as ever, slow to chide, and swift to bless. Alleluia! Alleluia! Glorious in His faithfulness.

Shepherd like He tends and spares us; well our feeble frame He knows. In His hand He gently bears us, rescues us from all our foes. Alleluia! Alleluia! Widely yet His mercy flows!

Angels, help us to adore Him; you behold Him face to face. Sun and moon bow down before Him, dwellers all in time and space. Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise with us the God of grace!

Question of Preparation (from the Heidelberg Catechism; congregation reads answer in unison)

Question #27: What do you understand by the providence of God?

Answer: Providence is the almighty and ever present power of God by which He upholds, as with His hand, heaven and earth and all creatures and so rules them that leaf and blade, rain and drought, fruitful and lean years, food and drink, health and sickness, prosperity and poverty—all things, in fact, come to us not by chance but from His fatherly hand.

PROJECT OF THE MONTH: MARANATHA MISSIONS

Maranatha youth group will send four short-term missions teams to partner with ongoing ministries in Northeast & West Philadelphia; Buffalo, NY; and Puerto Rico. Each summer the teens together raise $90,000, which goes to various needs such as: field trips for 250 kids each day for Spruce Hill Camp and 100 kids in Northeast Camp, a new roof we will build for a school in Puerto Rico so that it can remain open (it's the only school in the area that has programs for kids with special needs), gifts to our partners so they can continue the work year-round, and meals and transportation for the team doing urban farming in Buffalo, NY. The missions trips are a large part of our vision at Tenth for discipling teens in their pursuit of Christ. Our theme this summer will highlight various heroes in the Bible (many of them young people), who through faith, demonstrated the power and love of God.

Cash or checks made payable to Tenth Presbyterian Church, with "June Project of the Month" on the memo line, may be placed in offering plates or one of the oak boxes at the Sanctuary entrances.

JUNE 17, 2018

Pastor Jaime Leal: A Man of Faith, Vision, and Compassion

By Dr. Bruce A. McDowell and Rev. Enrique Leal

Tenth Church global partner Pastor Jaime Leal of Santa Marta, Colombia, died of a heart attack at age 57 on May 29, preparing to go to the pulpit to preach to his congregation. He had a faith that motivated and energized people to believe that God would provide, which became contagious. He believed that people would really be saved, healed, and transformed by the gospel. Countless people both in Colombia and in the USA came to faith in Christ through his witness and preaching. In three months a struggling group of about ten in north New Jersey grew to a congregation of about 50 congregants. Numerous people received spiritual deliverance and physical healing from God through his prayers, including disappearance of cancerous tumors. He had faith in the power of the message of the gospel, so he would boldly preach in public without fear. He also had faith to believe that God could change people who were the outcasts of society—the street children, orphans, abandoned indigenous tribes, and drug addicts. He believed that something can happen out of nothing. So he would start feeding street children, which resulted in buying a property and building a children's home. His faith that God could use him to bring to faith an unevangelized indigenous tribe led him to housing, feeding, and educating their children, through which many children became believers and their parents too.

Jaime's vision came out of his deep faith in the sovereignty of God. Although he particularly focused on ministering to the disadvantaged, he was also used to bring upper class Colombians to faith in Christ and sought their involvement in the ministry to the poor. He had a vision for training up young people to serve in the ministry by providing them with theological education, mentoring, and practical service. Education was one of his priorities, with starting the John Calvin School at the Hogar la Providencia. But he also was used to build seven schools in poor communities that had no schools, two of which were in indigenous communities.

Jaime was excellent at making connections with people everywhere, including with pastors from other denominations to whom he taught Reformed theology. He had a vision for expanding church planting across the north coast of Colombia and using the schools as a strategy for outreach to the communities.

What motivated Jaime's tremendous energy was his compassion for the disadvantaged and poor. He gave very sacrificially to help others from his own resources; he would cook for them and give away his clothes. He was unselfish, at times to a fault. A theme passage for Jaime's ministry was, "Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel" (1 Corinthians 9:16). Another favorite passage was, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed..." (Luke 4:18). This became his vision and motivation for compassion.

Tenth Church began partnering with Pastor Leal in 2002 when Pastor McDowell went to visit along with Noe Acosta. From then on Pastor McDowell continued visiting once or twice a year, taking many Tenth short-term teams. The teams assisted with medical outreach, fitting eye glasses, VBS, painting, construction, sports, evangelism, and training. Tenth Church also provided the major portion of support for building the children's home Hogar la Providencia, Iglesia la Puerta, and an outreach center in the village of Taganga. Also for years Tenth helped to sustain the Chimila indigenous children at the Hogar. It was a wonderful partnership that benefited both the believers in Colombia and the Tenth congregation. Some of those short-term missionaries to Colombia are now long-term missionaries.

Pray for the leadership and congregation in Santa Marta that Jaime Leal left behind as they seek to reorganize their ministries without him. Also pray for his widow Esther and sons Isaías and Mateo.

Tenth’s funds support those servants and cover other expenses (for our church ministries as well as maintenance, utilities, etc.) that keep the gospel work going.

Combined Church Ministry Fund and Outreach Fund budgets call for a giving total of $2,863,212. Pray for Tenth’s Elders and Trustees as we all re-commit ourselves to prayer and consider our grateful giving toward ongoing ministry for the gospel in Philadelphia and around the world.

ABOUT TENTH

We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America adhering to the authority of Scripture and confessing the doctrine contained in the Westminster Standards. Tenth was founded in 1829, its present structure was designed by John McArthur Jr., and built in 1855-1857. The interior was redesigned by Frank Miles Day in 1893. More information about history and architecture is at tenth.org/history.
